Story from the

Founders' Inbox -

Fruit Inbox was born out of an email Inbox!!

CONFUSED?

Here's what happened -

As corporate employees, our email box was always full of mails, both important and junk. That was not an issue. The problem occurred, when the Junk part exceeded the Important mail part. So what do we do with junk??? We trash it. And that's what we did. But that made us wonder... is this the only junk in our life? The answer came straight from the unhygienic food burps that were stress-thrusting. So we instantly knew, that we needed something stress-busting. And that's how Fruit Inbox was born with a sole motive of "No Junk, Just Health". Fruit Inbox brings you a quick-fix solution to this chronic problem. An inbox that carries health with a dose of its carefully chosen fresh fruit salads & Sandwiches, healthy juices and smart shakes.

When you add a portion of Fruit Inbox in your diet, you add a humongous potion of health to your lifestyle! After All,

#HealthStartsHere!

What does the Market Say?

Grab a carbs-rich breakfast in jiffy, swallow staple lunch diet and munch on your favorite unhealthy snack in the evening. Isn't it all that we feed our body in weekdays (Read: workdays)? How many of us end up feeling guilty for not eating healthy food all day long? "Aye! Me!," most of us would raise our hand at once. How many of us end up eating the same food every day? No hands down.

Researchers at Vielife, Global Health and Wellness Solution Provider, found out that employees with poor eating habits are at risk of developing diabetes, hypertension and high cholesterol levels. They also stated that productivity quotient of a healthy employee is about 20% higher than that of unhealthy ones. Also, well-known is the fact that food and eating habits are one of the major causes as well as prevention strategies for diseases.

Fruits are rich in natural sugar that enables a mind to work faster and stay alert longer. Vitamins, minerals and fibre in this food increase moisture in the body, stimulates memory and keeps away from a fuzzy head even in afternoons. Therefore, a best way to an enhanced pocket of productivity!

Have been listening to these nagging facts every now and then, still find it difficult to include nutrition to your daily diet? Fruit Inbox brings you a quick-fix solution to this chronic problem. An inbox that carries no junk, but all health with a dose of its carefully chosen fresh fruit salads, healthy juices and smart shakes.

A visit to Fruit Inbox a day, keeps your unproductive thoughts at bay!

Branding

A wise man, Wayne Dyer, once said - "Go the extra mile, it's never crowded."

Well, that certainly holds true in today's world, where promoting your brand and increasing its public visibility is an utmost important thing to do. It is when you go the extra mile, your brand grows the extra inch. And that is exactly what Fruit Inbox will help you achieve.

We at Fruit Inbox serve around 6000 trays in a month. This massively increases the chances of your brand visibility. And we will make sure that each of our customer gets a chance to have a good look at your awesome brand. We have great tray covers that will ingeniously incorporate your brand name and related details for our customers to see. This way you not only increase your brand visibility, but also share the valuable credibility that the Fruit Inbox brand has earned in the hearts of its customers.
